

with Jennie S. Luce and Hazel Turner, on the 15th day of January, 1929, subscribing the said will as a witness thereto, at the special instance and request of the said Mrs. Edna Luce Stewart, the testatrix therein, and in her presence, and in the presence of each other, as did also the said Jennie S. Luce and Hazel Turner, after she, the said testatrix, had signed her name thereto. That the said Mrs. Edna Luce Stewart in their presence freely and voluntarily signed and published the same as her last will and testament, and at the time of said signing and attestation, she was of sound and disposing mind and memory.

M. C. Mosley, Ordinary.

I, Albert L. Luce, do solemnly swear that this writing contains the true last will of the within named Mrs. Edna Luce Stewart, deceased, so far as I know and believe, and that I will will and truly execute the same in accordance with the laws of the State. (The other Executor declining to qualify) So help me God!

Sworn to and subscribed before me,

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

Know all men by these presents that I, Annie Lee Gray, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling any and all will or wills by me heretofore made.

ITEM I. I desire and direct that my body be given a decent and christian-like burial in keeping with my condition and circumstances in life. I direct that my grave be marked alike or in keeping with the markers over the graves of my Mother and Father.

ITEM II. I desire and direct that all of my just debts, if any there be, be paid as promptly as practicable by my Executor hereinafter named and appointed.

ITEM III. I give, devise and bequeath to my dear friend, Mrs. R. S. Braswell Sr., of Port Valley, Georgia, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars to be paid to her in cash.

ITEM IV. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved Sister, Mrs. Kittie Watson Clark, the sum of One Hundred Dollars to be paid to her in cash.

Will of Annie Lee Gray- page two (2)

ITEM V. I desire and direct that simple markers be placed over the graves of my first husband, William W. Thweatt, and my second husband, Lawrence P. Gray, both being buried in the Oaklawn Cemetery, Port Valley, Georgia; it being stipulated that said markers shall not exceed a cost of $100.00 each.

ITEM VI. I desire and direct, and so devise, give and bequeath, that all of my books, pictures, silverware, furniture, wearing apparel, bedding and jewelry be equally divided among my beloved Brother Thomas V. Watson, my beloved Sister, Mrs. Blanche Watson Jones, and my beloved Aunt,

Mrs. Minnie Van Zant Meek. I desire and direct that the three named persons meet together, without others being present, and make equitable and fair division of said items among themselves. If they cannot agree upon such division, then I direct that they divide all of the said property into three portions of equal value, as best they can judge; and in the event of inability to agree then my executor hereinafter named and appointed shall make such equal and fair division. Upon such division into portions of equal value said named legatees shall assign the same by lot, numbering the three portions and drawing therefor.

ITEM VII. After making provision for the expenses and bequests as herein-above provided, I desire and direct that the remainder of my property shall go share and share alike in equal portions as hereinafter provided, each of said shares or portions, however, to be subject to the condition that before delivery or assignment thereof my Executor hereinafter named and appointed shall pay over to the Associated Charities of the City of Fort Valley or some other public Welfare and Charitable organization as may be then in existence in Fort Valley, Georgia, for charitable purposes, ten per cent (10%) of such share or portion. And if such share or portion is in property instead of money, then such provision of ten per cent shall apply to income as received and paid to the legatees hereinafter named, and finally to the corpus upon its delivery.

ITEM VIII. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved brother, Thomas V. Watson, to have and hold unto him without restriction or limitation, the one-third of all of my property, whether real, personal or mixed, as ascertained and determined as set out in Item VII of this my will, subject, of course, to the payment of the ten per cent thereof for charity as in said Item VII provided.

ITEM IX. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved Sister, Mrs. Blanch Watson Jones, and during the term of her natural life, all of the income, rents, issues and profits arising from the one-third share or portion of my estate ascertained and determined as set out in Item VII of this my will, subject of course, to the payment of the ten per cent. thereof for charity as in said Item VII provided. Upon the death of my said sister, Mrs. Blanche Watson Jones, all of the said one-third share or portion, together with such other property as may be theirs as hereinafter provided, shall go to and become the sole and exclusive right and property, share and share alike in equal portions, of such child or children as the said Blanche Watson Jones may leave surviving her.

ITEM X. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved Aunt, Mrs. Minnie VanZant Meek, and during the term of her natural life, all of the income, rents, issues and profits arising from the one-third share or portion of my estate ascertained and determined as set out in Item VII of this my will, subject of course, to the payment of the ten per cent. thereof for charity as in said Item VII provided. Upon the death of my said Aunt, Mrs. Minnie VanZant Meek, all of the said one-third share or portion so left to her for her life, it shall be ^{divided} equally, the one-half thereof to go to and become the exclusive right and property of my Brother, Thomas V. Watson, without restriction or limitation; and the other one-half thereof to go to my said sister, Mrs. Blanche Watson Jones, for the term of her natural life as set out regarding the bequest to her in Item IX of this my will. And then, upon the death of my said sister, same shall go to and become the right and property, without restriction or limitation of such child or children, in equal shares, as the said Blanche Watson Jones may leave surviving her, just as is specified and set out in said Item IX of this my will.

ITEM XI. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my Brother, Thomas V. Watson, as Executor of this my will, stipulating that he shall make return of my estate and give bond as such Executor in the Court of Ordinary of Peach County, Georgia, the County of my residence. I stipulate and provide that my said executor shall not receive compensation for his services as such Executor, being allowed only such costs for bond, attorney's fees court costs as may be incidental to the probate and execution of this my will. I feel that my said brother will be glad to execute the will without compensation to himself.

Annie Lee Gray

signed, sealed, declared and published by Annie Lee Gray, the within named testatrix, in the presence of the undersigned, witnesses, who sign our names as witnesses hereto at the special instance and request of the said testatrix, she first signing in our presence and we then signing in her presence and in the presence of each other.

In the Name of God, Amen

I, Elizabeth Kilpatrick Hunter, of said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all others by me heretofore made.

ITEM I I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian-like manner in keeping with my circumstances and conditions in life.

ITEM II I desire and direct that all of my just debts, if any there be at the time of my death, be paid without unnecessary delay by my executrix hereinafter named.

ITEM III I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved daughter, Clifford Hunter, all of my property of which I may die seized and possessed, of any kind and character, whether real, personal or mixed, including that owned by me now and as well all hereafter acquired.

ITEM IV In the event of the death of my beloved daughter, Clifford Hunter, prior to my death, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal or mixed to my son-in-law, J. Norman Pease, to be held in trust by him for the four minor children of my deceased daughter, Jule Hunter Hurst, my grandchildren profiting by this request being Edward Hunter Hurst, Sam T. Hurst Jr., Jule Hurst and John Hurst. It is my wish that in the event my daughter, Clifford Hunter, dies before I do and my estate is disposed of under this item of my will, that my son-in-law, J. Norman Pease, as trustee for the said minor children, shall use the income from my property for the support, maintenance and education of the said four named children, and that he shall have the right and permission to encroach upon the corpus of the estate at any time he may deem it necessary to properly care for and educate any or all of four named children. When the youngest of the said four named children shall reach the age of twenty-one, I then desire and direct that all of my estate then remaining in the hands of the trustee shall be divided, share and share alike, among the four named children of my deceased daughter, Jule Hunter Hurst.

ITEM V I have in this will given, devised and bequeathed to my beloved daughter, Clifford Hunter, all of my estate should she survive me. This provision of my will is in no way intended to reflect a lack of affection for my two daughters, Mrs. Albert S. Meade of Riverside, California, or Mrs. Norman Pease of Charlotte, N. C.; nor is it in any way intended to reflect a lack of affection for the four children of my deceased daughter, Jule Hunter Hurst. The disposition of my estate as set out in this will, is I am sure, in accord with the wishes of my two daughters, Mrs. Albert S. Meade and Mrs. J. Norman Pease, and while my daughter, Clifford Hunter, is bequeathed my property without any restrictions as to its use or disposition, I impose the greatest confidence in her and feel sure that she will use said
