WILL OF MRS. STELLA N. SLAPPEY

I, Stella N. Slappey, of Port Valley, Peach County, Georgia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, declare and publish this my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking all others heretofore made by me.

ITEM ONE

My executor hereof shall pay all my just debts as soon as practicable after my death.

ITEM TWO

My brick store and the lot upon which the same is situated, on Main Street, next to the postoffice, in said city, now occupied by Sam Arneson, I devise to my daughter, Beulah Slappey Harris, for her lifetime and thereafter to her children, born and to be born, and the descendants of such of her children as may die before she does, in equal shares per stirpes.

ITEM THREE

My brick store and the lot on which the same is situated, on Main Street in said city, now occupied by W. M. Johnson, I devise to my son, George H. Slappey, absolutely in fee simple; subject to a charge in favor of my estate for One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) which said George H. Slappey must pay to my executor.

ITEM FOUR

Fifty (50) shares of stock in the Southwestern Railroad Company I bequeath to my daughter, Maud Slappey Souder, for her lifetime and thereafter to her children, born and to be born, and the descendants of such of her children as may die before she does, in equal shares per stirpes.

ITEM FIVE

To each of the six children of my deceased daughter, Ruby Slappey Harris, to-wit: Jake, Stella, Beulah, Alice, Maud and Ernest, I bequeath One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in cash. My executor hereof shall hold and manage the amounts hereby bequeathed to the two minors, Maud and Ernest, respectively; and shall apply for their respective benefits so much thereof as he may deem proper during their respective minorities; all in his absolute discretion.

ITEM SIX

My tract of land in the southern part of said county, consisting of lots numbers eight (8) and twenty-five (25) and eleven-sixteenths (11/16) of lots numbers twenty-three (23) and twenty-four (24) I devise as follows: (1) A one-third interest therein to my daughter, Alice Slappey Black, for her lifetime and thereafter to her daughter, Stella Lamb; (2) a one-third interest therein to my son, J. S. Slappey, in trust for himself, for his lifetime and thereafter for his children, born and to be born, and the descendants of such of his children as may die before he does, in equal shares per stirpes; and (3) a one-third interest therein to my daughter, Gladys Slappey Maddox, in trust for herself, for her lifetime and thereafter for her children, born and to be born, and the descendants of such of her children as may die before she does, in equal shares per stirpes.

My said son, J. B. Slappey and my said daughters, Alice Slappey Black and Gladys Slappey Maddox, shall have the power respectively, as trustees, to sell and convey publicly or privately without the order of any court or officer the one-third interests in said land hereby devised to them respectively in trust; thereby respectively divesting out of themselves and their children and the descendants thereof all title and equity and vesting a fee simple title in the purchasers from them respectively. The proceeds of such sales respectively shall be invested in stock of said railroad company to be held in trust as said interests in said land respectively shall be held, but the power of sale herein imparted shall not extend to said stock.

ITEM SEVEN

I have offered to said city and county my home in said city and the land upon which the same is situated for certain public purposes upon certain terms and conditions. If they do not accept the same upon those terms and conditions so that the same shall have been conveyed to them by January 1, 1929 my executor hereof shall sell publicly or privately without the order of any court or officer. He shall apply so much of the proceeds thereof as may be required to the payment of my debts and the costs and expenses of administering my estate and divide the balance among my six children and six grandchildren herein named and the descendants of such thereof as may die before I do, in equal shares per stirpes.

ITEM EIGHT

I hereby nominate my son, George H. Slappey, to be executor hereof. As such, he shall not be required to file any bond, inventory, appraisement, return or accounting, with any court or officer.

Witness my hand and seal Oct. 22nd, 1927.

STATE OF GEORGIA
COUNTY OF PEACH

I, Mattie E. Green of said County and State, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills by me heretofore made.

ITEM I I desire and direct that my body be buried in a decent and Christian-like manner suitable to my circumstances and conditions in life.

ITEM II I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without unnecessary delay by my executrix hereinafter named and appointed.

ITEM III I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved daughter, Susie E. Green, all of my estate, real, personal or mixed, absolutely in fee simple, whether owned by me now or hereafter acquired.

ITEM IV I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved daughter, Susie E. Green sole executrix of this my last Will and Testament, and I expressly confer upon her power as such to administer my estate, exonerating her from giving any bond or making any returns to the Ordinary or any other Court, and I expressly confer upon her the full authority and power to sell any part of my estate at public or private sale without any order of Court, with or without notice, as she may deem best.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal on this 2nd, day of July, 1928.

Mattie E. Green.
