In the name of God Amen. I Isabella Ross of the of the County of Richmond do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say.

I give devise and bequeath unto My Nephews James Ross Williamson and Andrew Jones Williamson, sons of My friend John B. Williamson all My Estate real and personal whatsoever, to be equally divided between them their heirs and assigns, share and share alike, after the decease of My beloved Grandmother Mrs. Johnson. But until her death I desire to be kept together, and divided for her and their support.

I do nominate and appoint My friends John B. Williamson and the James Executors of this My last Will & Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set My hand and seal this day of November in the Year of our Lord 1807.

Recorded the last will and testament of Richmond the 8th day of January 1811.

The foregoing last will and testament of Isabella Rae was produced in Court and Gray Rowan one of the executors therein named, being duly sworn made oath that the same is the last will and testament of the said Testator, that he, the said executor, was not present at the making thereof, but believes that the hand writing thereto and thereon is the proper hand writing of the said Testatrix and that to the best of his knowledge and belief she was of sound disposing mind and memory at making the same. And thereupon the said Gray Rowan executor aforesaid, together with Charles Dickinson & William Mc Lean who have also proved the said will, subscribed their names as witnesses to the same at the request and in the presence of the Testatrix and in the presence of each other, all things thereto to be needed. Test Isaac Norbert Clerk
